

JAMES TAN

Chief Executive Officer
TOUCH Community Services

James Tan is the Chief Executive Officer of TOUCH Community Services.

Prior to joining TOUCH, James has more than 20 years of experience in the corporate world. His passion to make a difference in the lives of individuals and the community led him to make the switch to the social service sector.

In his current role, James leads TOUCH towards the outworking of Vision 2030 - Strong Families, Caring Generations, Enabled Communities. Under his leadership, TOUCH was awarded the Charity Transparency Award for four consecutive years by the Charity Council, and the Special Commendation Award for Clarity of Strategy in the Charity Governance Awards 2017.

Over and above his current role in TOUCH, James believes in contributing back to the sector as much as he can.

He is currently a member of the Ministry of Health & Ministry of Social and Family Development's Interagency Taskforce on Mental Health & Well-being, the Community Care Technology Council led by the Agency for Integrated Care, Ministry of Health's War on Diabetes Taskforce, the Ministry of Communications & Information's Digital Readiness Council Steering Committee, Agency for Integrated Care's Community Care Manpower Council and the NUS Social Service Research Centre's Advisory Board.
